

The North Carolina FFA Constitution

Preamble

Whereas the Future Farmers of America (FFA) is a national organization, of, by, and for students of Agricultural Education, and

Whereas the FFA is an integral part of instruction in Agricultural Education, and

Whereas the North Carolina FFA Constitution and Bylaws cannot be in direct conflict with those of the National FFA Organization,

It is, therefore, necessary that certain articles and sections of the State Constitution and Bylaws are beyond jurisdiction and discretion of FFA members, but reserved for the judgements and decisions of those adults who have authority and responsibility for guidance and direction of the FFA.

It is proper, however, for State Convention delegates, assembled in regular session to appeal to the Board of Directors concerning any portion of the Constitution and Bylaws.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be "The North Carolina FFA Association." The letters, "FFA" may be officially used to designate the organization, its units, or members thereof.

ARTICLE II. AIMS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE ASSOCIATION

The major function of this Association is to create, foster, and assist local chapters of students and former students of Agricultural Education in North Carolina. The Association will operate within the following framework for the accomplishment of its purposes:

1. To be an integral part of the organized instructional programs in agricultural education that prepare students for a wide range of careers in agriculture, agribusiness, and other agriculture occupations.
2. To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and in their work by developing desirable work habits and the effective usage of their time; by learning to assume responsibility; and by developing competencies in communications, human relations, and other social abilities leading to the intelligent choice of a career and successful employment or entrepreneurship in the agricultural industry.

3. To provide agricultural programs and activities that will develop pride, responsibility, leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, patriotism, and thrift, and that will improve the economic, environmental, recreational, and human resources of the community.
4. To encourage and recognize achievement in supervised agricultural experience programs, scholarship, leadership and other individual and group activities by providing awards to deserving members, advisors and chapters.

ARTICLE III. ORGANIZATION

Section A.

The North Carolina FFA Association is the State organization for students of Agricultural Education. It shall consist of chartered local chapters.

Section B.

Active chapters of the FFA shall be chartered only in schools where recognize systematic instruction in Agricultural Education is offered. Such chapters shall operate as an integral part of the instructional program of Agricultural Education under the responsibility of the local school system.

Section C.

To secure a charter, students shall meet, organize, adopt a constitution not in conflict with the state constitution, elect officers, set up a program of activities, and submit the program of activities and state and national dues along with an application for charter to the State FFA Coordinator.

Section D.

Collegiate chapters may be chartered in two or four year post-secondary institutions where agricultural courses are taught. Membership shall be open to students enrolled in agricultural courses, or who are pursuing career objectives in the industry of agriculture. Each chartered collegiate chapter may adopt a constitution which shall not be in conflict with that of the National Organization or the State Association, elect officers, and establish a program of activities. Collegiate chapter members shall pay National FFA Organization dues. They shall operate under all other pertinent provisions of the National FFA Constitution and Bylaws and shall be chartered and maintained under the authority of the State FFA Association.

ARTICLE IV. PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING STANDING OF CHAPTERS AND MEMBERS

Section A.

A local chapter shall be considered in good standing with the North Carolina State Association when the following conditions are met:

1. Current state and national dues have been paid by not later than March 1.
2. All reports have been submitted as required by the State Association.
3. No provisions of the chapter constitution is in conflict with the State Constitution and the activities of the chapter are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the FFA.

Section B.

The State FFA Coordinator shall identify chapters which have not paid dues by February 1 and such chapters will be notified of the deadline for paying dues.

Section C.

1. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by the State Association Board of Directors not earlier than the close of the State Convention during which they were not in good standing.
2. In the event a local department of Agricultural Education is discontinued, its chartered FFA chapter may officially operate for a period not to exceed three years (36 months) from the date of discontinuance, provided proper supervision is given by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the State FFA Advisor. The chapter's charter must be surrendered to the State Advisor at the end of the three year period if a local department of agricultural education is not in operation in the school at that time.

Section D.

An active member shall be considered in good standing when:

1. The member attends local chapter meetings while enrolled in the school where the chapter is established.
2. The member shows an active interest in and takes part in the affairs of the chapter.
3. The member pays state and national dues regularly and acts in a manner consistent with the ideals of the FFA.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP

Section A.

Membership in the State Association shall be of four kinds: Active, Alumni, Collegiate, and Honorary.

Section B.

Active membership. Any student who is regularly enrolled in Agricultural Education is entitled to become an active member of his/her school's FFA chapter. In order to retain membership, the member must be enrolled in at least one Agricultural Education course during the school year and/or follow a planned course of study. Either course must include a supervised agricultural experience program, the objective of which is preparation for an agricultural career. Members may retain their active membership until November 30, following the fourth National FFA Convention after graduation from high school. A member who is in good standing at the time of induction into the armed forces of the United States of America shall be in good standing during the period of active service without further payment of dues or attendance at meetings. Time spent in the armed forces shall not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period of four conventions following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members using this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining active membership for application for advance degrees of membership must resume active participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from military service and indicate such a desire by paying dues and amending meetings. Members participating in a six-month armed services program shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individual may retain active membership beyond his or her twenty-third birthday.

Section C.

Alumni membership. Membership shall be open to former active members, collegiate and honorary members, present and former professional agricultural educators, parents of FFA members, and others interested in and supportive of the FFA.

Section D.

Collegiate Membership. Collegiate membership shall be open to students who are enrolled in agricultural courses or who are pursuing career objectives in the industry of agriculture at a two or four-year postsecondary institution having a Collegiate FFA chapter.

Section E.

Honorary Membership. Farmers, school superintendents, principals, members of boards of education, chapter advisors, teachers, staff members in agricultural education, business people, and others who are helping to advance agricultural education and the FFA and who have rendered outstanding service, may be elected to honorary membership by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting or convention.

ARTICLE VI. ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP- DEGREES AND PRIVILEGES

Section A.

There shall be five degrees of active membership based on individual achievement. These are the Discovery FFA Degree, Greenhand FFA Degree, the Chapter FFA Degree, the State FFA Degree and the American FFA Degree. The National Organization shall set the minimum qualifications for each degree.

Section B.

The Discovery FFA Degree. On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the national constitution, the Discovery FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter.

Section C.

The Greenhand FFA Degree. On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the national constitution, the Greenhand FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter.

Section D.

The Chapter FFA Degree. On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the national constitution, the Chapter FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter.

Section E.

The State FFA Degree. On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the national constitution, the State FFA Degree may be conferred by the State Association. Written records of achievement of all requirements, verified by the chapter FFA advisor, shall be submitted to the State Association at least one month prior to the state FFA convention at which the State FFA Degree is to be received. The State FFA Advisor shall provide for review of the records and submit a recommendation to the State Association governing body, which shall nominate at the state FFA convention the candidates who have been found worthy to receive the honor. The State FFA Degree will be conferred upon the candidates subject to approval by the delegates at the state FFA convention.

Section F.

The American FFA Degree. On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the national constitution, the American FFA Degree may be conferred by the National Organization.

ARTICLE VII. EMBLEM

Section A.

The official emblem of the National FFA Organization shall include five symbols, namely: the plow, representing labor and tillage of the soil; the owl, representing wisdom; the rising sun, representing progress; a cross-section of an ear of corn, representing common agricultural interests; and an American eagle surmounting the cross-section of the ear of corn, representing the national scope of the organization. The emblem shall also include the letters, "FFA" and the words, "Agricultural Education."

Section B.

The emblem shall be uniform in all chapters. All members shall be entitled to display the emblem.

Section C.

Discovery FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official blue emblem pin. Greenhand FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official bronze emblem pin. Chapter FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official silver emblem pin. State FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official gold emblem charm. American FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official gold emblem key.

Section D.

Honorary Chapter FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear either the official silver or gold emblem pin, Honorary State FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official gold emblem charm, and Honorary American FFA Degree recipients shall be entitled to wear the official gold emblem key.

Section E.

FFA advisors shall be entitled to wear the official gold owl pin.

ARTICLE VIII. STATE AND CHAPTER OFFICERS

Section A.

The elected officers of the State Association shall consist of a President and five (5) vice presidents. Each vice president shall be in charge of one of the following stations: Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter, Sentinel. Each of the officers will be elected at large.

Section B.

A nominating committee shall be appointed by State FFA Advisor to study the qualifications and interview candidates for State Office and recommend a slate of candidates to the convention delegates for their consideration. State FFA Officers shall serve from one state convention through the next succeeding state convention and shall not be re-elected, nor be eligible for election to another state office. In the event a state convention is not held in any given year, the State Board of Directors shall make provisions for the appointment of state officers for the next succeeding year. The State FFA Advisor shall have the power to appoint a qualified member to fill any office that becomes vacant between state conventions.

Section C.

State officers must have the State FFA Degree by the time of their election. They will serve only one year.

Section D.

Chapter officers shall consist of at least a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Reporter and Sentinel. They shall be elected annually or semi-annually at a regular meeting of the local chapter. Other officers may be elected as deemed appropriate by the local chapter advisor and/or the chapter governing body. The teacher(s) of agricultural education shall be the FFA advisor(s) of the local FFA Chapter, Federation and Region.

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS AND CONVENTIONS

Section A.

A state convention shall be held annually, except in case of extreme emergency. The purpose of the state convention shall be to conduct the business of the state association and to recognize outstanding achievements of FFA members and chapters. The time and place of the convention shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section B.

Each chapter is entitled to send official delegates from its active membership to the state convention based on the following formula: two delegates for the first 50 members; one additional delegate for each additional 50 members or major fraction thereof. A delegate is entitled to one vote.

Section C.

Local chapter, federation, region, and other such area meetings may be held as necessary in order to transact FFA business and activities.

ARTICLE X. STATE ASSOCIATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section A.

The governing body of the Association shall be the State FFA Board of Directors. This body is composed of the following voting members:

1. One teacher educator in agricultural education from each of the institutions of higher education in the state which prepare teachers of agricultural education.
2. One teacher of agricultural education from each of the recognized FFA regions.
3. The State FFA Officers.
4. The President, President Elect, and Past President of the North Carolina Agriculture Teachers' Association.
5. The State President of the North Carolina FFA Alumni Association as an ex officio voting member.

Section B.

The Past President of the North Carolina Agriculture Teachers Association shall serve as the chairperson of the State FFA Board of Directors. The vice chair shall be the North Carolina Agriculture Teachers Association President.

Section C.

The Board of Directors is responsible for keeping the Association consistent with all laws, rules and regulations pertaining to the FFA. The Board has the authority to veto any action of delegates assembled in convention other than those matters concerning the election of State FFA Officers and additions or deletions to the Constitution as long as they are consistent with all laws, rules and regulations of the FFA. The Board of Directors must carefully consider all proposals and recommendations passed by the convention delegates.

Section D.

The Board of Directors shall meet each year at a time and place to be decided by the Board. Special meetings may be called as needed by the Board chair.

Section E.

Only in special cases or emergency circumstances, the State FFA Board of Directors Governing Committee shall have the authority to take appropriate action for the entire Board. The Governing Committee shall consist of the board chair and three other Board members elected annually by the Board, one of whom shall be an FFA member. If this authority is utilized, Board Members shall be notified and a report of action taken shall be presented to the next meeting of the Board.

Section F.

In carrying out its responsibilities as set forth above, the Board may involve various resource persons. Such individuals may be invited to Board meetings, but shall have no vote. Appropriate school administrators, representatives of agricultural organizations, and other individuals with specific expertise that may be helpful to the Board may be appointed for specified terms by the Board chair.

ARTICLE XI. DUES

Section A.

Annual dues in the State Association shall be fixed by a two third majority vote of delegates assembled in convention. The Board of Directors shall submit their recommendations concerning dues to local chapters at least thirty days prior to the state convention.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENTS

Section A.

Proposed amendments to the State FFA Constitution may be submitted by local chapters, State Officers, or the State Board of Directors. Proposed amendments from chapters must be submitted in writing to the State FFA Coordinator by December 15. Proposed amendments will be reviewed by the Board of Directors to determine the constitutionality of such amendments. These amendments, if constitutional, are then distributed to local chapters at least thirty days prior to the next succeeding state convention, and submitted to the official delegates for final action. An amendment to the State Constitution may be adopted by a two-thirds majority vote of the delegates.

Section B.

Amendments to the Bylaws may be proposed by a local chapter, an official delegate, or the State Board of Directors. Amendments to the Bylaws must be in harmony with the FFA constitution and can be adopted by a majority vote of the official delegates.
