

Agricultural Communications CDE

Purpose

The purpose of the Agricultural Communications Career Development Event is to provide individuals with communication skills necessary to pursue career opportunities.

Representing agriculturalists across the world, these individuals possess the skills to effectively communicate agricultural messages to the public, both involved and not involved in agriculture. Because a large percentage of the population lacks agricultural understanding, it is important for agricultural communicators to provide timely, accurate information on current issues and events.

Sponsor

North Carolina Farm Bureau currently sponsors this event.

Superintendent

The superintendent for this event is Mr. Nelson Powell, Senior Relationship Manager, Rabo AgriFinance, 310 Bratton Drive, Suite A, Garner, NC 27529. Phone: 855-818-6555.

Comments and questions may also be directed to Mr. Joshua Bledsoe, State Agricultural Education Leader, Department of Agricultural and Human Sciences, NC State University, Box 7654, Raleigh, NC 27695-7654

Eligibility

This event is open to all FFA chapters and FFA members in good standing. FFA member may not participate in a Career Development Event that leads to a state level event after July 1, following their high school/early college graduation. Previous state winners are ineligible. Members that have participated in a previous national event in this area are ineligible. This event will be held during the North Carolina State FFA Convention.

No alternates are allowed in state events. Any alternate found participating in a state event will result in team disqualification.

The use or possession of cellular phones or any other mobile electronic communication device is prohibited during any state-level career development event. Any violation of this rule by any team member will result in total team disqualification.

Any member found cheating in any state-level career development event will result in total team disqualification for that event.

At the North Carolina FFA State Convention, participation in more than one FFA CDE event is permitted as long as events are not being held concurrently and no special provisions are required to facilitate participation with the exception that parliamentary procedure and public speaking and parliamentary procedure and Creed speaking which are held concurrently will allow dual participation and special provisions for flighting.

Teams will consist of four members.

Official FFA dress consist of: Black slacks and black socks or black skirt and black nylons, white collared blouse or white collared shirt, official FFA tie or official FFA scarf, black dress shoes with closed heel and toe, and an official FFA jacket zipped to the top.

The North Carolina FFA Association strives to promote a positive image at all Official FFA Events. The dress code policy was established to address the issue of appropriate attire at all Official FFA Events. Members should adhere to this policy for all events. A ten percent reduction will be applied to all individual scores from a chapter if a participant from that chapter violates the dress code during that career event.

The North Carolina FFA Association, in keeping with the FFA mission and purposes, does not permit the use of tobacco products, e-cigarettes, vapes, or Juuls at any FFA facility or at any FFA activity.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, NC FFA will honor requests for reasonable accommodations made by individuals with disabilities. Please direct accommodation requests to: Carmen Bracey at carmen_bracey@ncsu.edu. Requests can be served more effectively if notice is provided at least 10 days before the event.

Middle School Participation

Middle school students and teams may participate in any Career Development Event or Leadership Development Event. The top three middle school participants will be recognized in each division of an event. Middle school participants should designate during registration.

Event Format

Part I: Communications Project Proposal and Presentation - 200 Points

Teams will paly the role of communications consultants and will develop a media plan for an assigned scenario. The scenario will identify a client with a communications need and a budget. The scenario will be chosen by National FFA in January of that year. Guidance on the event is presented below. At the state career development event, the team will make an oral presentation of the proposal.

A media plan is a written document that describes the following:

- Objectives – What the group wants to accomplish with the media plan
- Target Audience – Description of whom the client is trying to reach, including demographic data

- Strategic plan and tactics – Ways in which the objectives can be accomplished
- Timeline – When the objectives will be accomplished
- Evaluation – How the results will be measured
- Budget – How much the plan will cost

Media Plan Guidelines

- The media plan should be a maximum of 15 pages using 8.5" x 11" white bond paper
- Double spaced with 1" margins
- 12 point Times New Roman
- Formatted and edited according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA)
- Staple the proposal in upper left-hand corner, DO NOT bind or place in folders, special binders, or covers

The media plan should include the following sections:

- Cover Page
 - Must include the title of the media plan, CDE name, chapter, team members and date
- Table of Contents
- Executive Summary (1-page max.) – Brief description of the contents of the media plan
- Introduction and Overview (2-page max.)
 - Introduction – A brief background of the issue/topic and a statement of the problem establishing the need for this media plan
 - Overview – A brief preview of what is contained in the plan
- Audience (2-page max.)
- Strategic Plan (6 pages max.)
 - Include your objective, key message or themes
- Timeline (1-page max.)
- Evaluation (1-page max.)
- Budget (1-page max.)
- Conclusion (1-page max.)
- References
 - Formatted and edited according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA)

Media Plans are to be submitted to the State office before 5pm on June 1, prior to the State FFA Convention.

Project Theme: TBA January 2020

Part II: Presentation - 125 points

The communications project proposal and presentation will be based on the same topic.

The team will present its communications plan to a panel of judges. When making the presentation to the judges, the team should present based on the following:

- The presentation should follow and cover all of the items listed in the guidelines for the plan.
- Include examples of materials prepared during the execution of the plan (ex. Brochures, newsletters, news releases, photos, graphics, videos, radio tapes, etc.)
- Team members should not rely solely on equipment. Each team member must participate in the presentation.
- Time Limit: A maximum time limit for the presentation will be 15 minutes with a warning provided by the judges at 10 minutes. A penalty of a one-point deduction from the presentation score per minute over the maximum allowance of 15 minutes shall be taken. 5 minutes will be provided for questions; 5 minutes for setup; and 5 minutes for take-down.

Part III: Communications Quiz - 100 points

Team members will individually complete a 25-question multiple choice quiz (1 point per question). The test questions will focus on general knowledge of the agricultural communications industry. Questions will come from the bolded reference to this guide (excluding sports guide lines). Team members may not use a style guide or dictionary.

Procedure for Determining the State Event Winner when Scores are Tied

In the event a tie score exists, apply the following methods in sequential order until the tie is broken:

1. Compare the media plan scores.

2. Compare the presentation scores.

State Awards

The following awards will be presented annually at the state FFA convention provided sponsorship is available:

State Winning Team

First place team plaque and travel award

Second Place Team

Second place team plaque

Third Place Team

Third place team plaque

National Career Development Event Participation

State winning teams advancing to the national career development event will be automatically registered for the national event. It is the responsibility of the FFA Chapter Advisor to complete all necessary national certification and waiver forms and return them to the state FFA Coordinator by the assigned due date.

State winning CDE teams that choose not to participate at the national level should contact the state office by Sept. 1 prior to national convention. Teams that fail to inform the state office prior to Sept. 1 will be ineligible to participate in that same CDE for the next year (chapters may appeal to the State FFA Board of Directors). Teams that do not compete at the National Convention will be required to pay back the travel award.
