

Prepared Public Speaking LDE

Purpose

The Prepared Public Speaking Career Development Event is designed to develop agricultural leadership by providing for member participation in agricultural public speaking activities and stimulating interest in leadership and citizenship. Members create and deliver a six- to eight-minute speech on a current agriculture topic or issue. Scoring is based on the written manuscript, delivery, and response to questions.

State Event Superintendent

The superintendent for this event is designated by the State Agriculture Education Leader and will be identified at the State FFA Convention.

Questions and comments can be directed to Mr. Jason Chester, Central Region Coordinator, 444 Bristol Dr, Statesville, NC 28677. Phone: 704.213.1335, Email: jdcheste@ncsu.edu

Eligibility

This event is open to all FFA chapters and FFA members in good standing. FFA Members may not participate in a Career Development Event that leads to a state level event after July 1, following their high school/early college graduation. The event will be open only to students who are active FFA members and who are currently enrolled in agricultural education. Members winning a previous state event in this area or that have participated in a previous national event in this area are ineligible.

The use or possession of cellular phones or any other mobile electronic communication device is prohibited during any state-level career development event. Any violation of this rule by any team member will result in total team disqualification.

Any member found cheating in any state level career development event will result in total team disqualification for that event.

The North Carolina FFA Association, in keeping with the FFA mission and purposes, does not permit the use of tobacco products, e-cigarettes, vapes, or Juuls at any FFA facility or at any FFA activity.

Supplemental Information

At the North Carolina FFA State Convention, participation in more than one FFA CDE event is permitted as long as events are not being held concurrently and no special provisions are required to facilitate participation with the exception that parliamentary procedure and public speaking and parliamentary procedure and Creed speaking which are held concurrently will allow dual participation and special provisions for flighting.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, North Carolina FFA will honor requests for reasonable accommodations made by individuals with disabilities. Please direct accommodation requests through the CDE/LDE Accommodation Request Form. If the accommodation can be made for all and/or doesn't provide an unfair advantage, then every effort will be made to provide the accommodation. Requests can be accommodated more effectively if notice is provided at least 10 days before the event.

Middle School Participation

Middle school students and teams may participate in any Career Development Event or Leadership Development Event. The top three middle school participants will be recognized. Middle school participants should designate during registration.

Dress Code

Participants in this event should wear official dress as described in the FFA manual. Official dress for an FFA member includes: an official FFA jacket zipped to the top, black slacks and black socks/nylons or black skirt and black nylons, white collared blouse or white collared shirt, official FFA tie or official FFA scarf, black dress shoes with closed heel and toe.

The North Carolina FFA Association strives to promote a positive image at all Official FFA Events. The dress code policy was established to address the issue of appropriate attire at all Official FFA Events. Members should adhere to this policy for all events. A ten percent reduction will be applied to all individual scores from a chapter if a participant from that chapter violates the dress code during that career event.

State Career Development Event Participation

The appropriate numbers of participants based on event involvement from each region are eligible to compete in the state career development event. Individuals advancing to state event participation must be certified by the regional FFA advisor.

Procedures for Administering the Event

The event should be conducted on federation, regional, state and national levels.

Manuscript Requirements

- Participants must submit a minimum of four copies of their speech for federation or regional competition as directed by the regional coordinator or federation advisor.
- For state level competition eight copies of their participant's speeches should be submitted to the State FFA Coordinator one week prior to the state convention.
- Speeches are to be formatted on 8 ½" x 11" white paper with 1" margins and double line spacing
- A cover page is to be included that gives the speech title, participant's name, chapter, state and year.
- Font size must be 12 point using sans serif font (Arial, Calibri, etc.) or serif (Times New Roman, Cambria, etc.).

- The manuscript should follow the most current APA style for developing a reference list and in text citations.
- A complete and accurate reference list should be included in the manuscript.
- Manuscripts are not to be bound, but should have a staple in the upper left corner.

Manuscripts not meeting these guidelines will be penalized. Each participant's manuscript must be the result of the student's own efforts.

Content Components

One should give credit to others where any direct quotes, phrases, or special dates are used in the manuscript, in order not to be guilty of plagiarism.

The participant may take advantage of all available training facilities and personnel in their local school and community in developing their speaking ability.

Facts and working data may be obtained from any source.

Subject: Participants may choose any current subject for their speeches which is of an agricultural character (nature) and which may include agriscience and technology, agribusiness, agrimarketing, international agricultural relations, agricultural communications. Official judges of FFA Prepared Public Speaking shall disqualify a participant if he or she speaks on a non-agricultural subject.

Presentation: No props are to be used.

Time Limit: Each speech shall be a minimum of six minutes in length and a maximum of eight minutes. Participants will be penalized one point per second on each judges' score sheet for being under six minutes or over eight minutes. Each participant will be allowed five additional minutes in which he or she will be asked questions relating to his or her speech. No time warnings will be given.

Selecting a winner: Three competent and impartial judges will be selected to judge the event at all levels above the chapter level. At least one of the judges should have an agricultural background. Judges will formulate and ask questions pertaining directly to the participant's speech (at all levels of competition). The full five minutes for questions should be used. Judges will score participants on the North Carolina FFA Public Speaking Scoring Rubric. Official placing for this event is based on ranks rather than scores. Each judge will independently score and rank the individual speakers based on the scores they gave him or her. The participant with the highest score total receives a rank of 1. Other participants are ranked in the same manner with each subsequent rank being for a lower score. After each judge has independently scored and ranked all participants, all judges will sum their ranks and the participant with the lowest cumulative total will be placed first. The second lowest cumulative total will be second place and so forth until all participants have been placed.

Procedure for Determining the State Event Winner When Scores are Tied

In the event of a tie in ranks, the individual raw scores will be added and the high scorer will be the winner.

State Awards

The awards for the state event will be presented annually at the state FFA convention to include a team 1st, 2nd and 3rd place plaque and a travel monetary award.

National Career Development Event Participation

State winning teams advancing to the national career development event will be automatically registered for the national event. It is the responsibility of the FFA chapter advisor to complete all necessary national certification and waiver forms and return them to the State FFA Coordinator by the assigned due date.

State winning CDE teams that choose not to participate at the national level should contact the state office by September 1 prior to national convention. Teams that fail to inform the state office prior to September 1 will be ineligible to participate in that same CDE for the next year (chapters may appeal to the State FFA Board of Directors). Teams that do not compete at the national convention will be required to pay back the travel award.

PREPARED PUBLIC SPEAKING CAREER DEVELOPMENT EVENT JUDGES WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE OFFICIAL PLACING

Judges will score speakers on the North Carolina FFA Prepared Public Speaking Scoring Rubric. Official placing for this event is based on ranks rather than scores. Each judge will independently score and rank the individual speakers based on the scores they gave him or her. The speaker with the highest score total receives a rank of 1. Other speakers are ranked in the same manner with each subsequent rank being for a lower score. Each judge has scored and ranked all speakers. Afterward all judges will collaborate to determine overall rankings and placing for each speaker. Judges will sum their ranks and the speaker with the lowest cumulative total will be placed first, second lowest cumulative total will be second place and so forth until all speakers have been placed.

Speakers in Order of Presentation	Judge A Rankings for each speaker		Judge B Rankings for each speaker		Judge C Rankings for each speaker		Cumulative Total of Ranks for all Judges for each speaker	Official Placing Lowest cumulative total is 1 st place and ascend as the cumulative total moves up.
