

North Carolina Agriculture Education Teacher Spotlight

Scottie Cook

School:
Alexander Central

Region:
Northwest

Teaching:
26 years

Courses Taught:
Agriculture Mechanics I, Agriculture
Mechanics II, Agriculture Mechanics II:
Small Engines

This month we recognize Scottie Cook in our Teacher Spotlight!

Mr. Cook has been teaching for 26 years and is currently a teacher at Alexander Central High School. He has taught many courses including: Agriculture Mechanics I, Agriculture Mechanics II, and Small Engines.

Congratulations to Mr. Cook for being named the 2023 NCATA Northwest Regional Teacher of the Year! Thank you for all your continued dedication to Agriculture Education, We are proud to recognize all that he does for his students!