

North Carolina FFA Association Board of Directors Student Engagement Committee Student Application

Students wishing to serve on the North Carolina FFA Board of Directors Student Engagement Committee must submit this application to the State FFA Advisor. Under the direction of the State FFA Advisor, the Student Engagement Committee, along with the chair of the Student Engagement Committee will select the student members of the committee.

Students who apply to serve on the Student Engagement Committee should take the role seriously, attend all meetings, and agree to serve a two-year term.

The four students that serve on the Student Engagement Committee will represent four different regions. The regional student representation will rotate with the two-year terms.
